

Mr. A.M. Naik Honoured With ICC Lifetime Achievement Award

In recognition of the outstanding contribution made by Mr. A.M. Naik, Executive Chairman, L&T, to the chemical industry, the Mumbai-based Indian Chemical Council (ICC) has honoured him with the coveted D.M. Trivedi Lifetime Achievement Award for 2011.

The award highlights the critical role played by L&T, under Mr. Naik's leadership, in providing the industry with a range of plant, systems, projects and construction services.

The citation for the award reads: 'L&T, under Mr. Naik's leadership, has immensely contributed to the growth of the Indian chemical industry by being the largest Indian engineering & construction company and also the largest supplier of equipment to the chemical industry. In addition, it is engaged in rapid development of infrastructure in India'.

Mr. S.N. Roy, Whole-time Director & Sr. EVP (Corporate Affairs & Power), L&T, accepted the award on behalf of Mr. Naik from Dr. Ashok Ganguly, Member of Parliament, in Mumbai on October 12, 2012.

Mr. S.N. Roy (left) receives the Lifetime Achievement Award on behalf of Mr. A.M. Naik from Dr. Ashok Ganguly (right).

The ICC also honoured the company with another distinction. L&T's wholly-owned subsidiary, L&T-Vadel Engineering Ltd., bagged the ICC Award for Excellence In Chemical Plant Design & Engineering. Mr. Satish N. Palekar who was until recently the CE of LTV, Mr. Subba Balaji Rao, Chief Engineering Manager, L&T-Valdel, and Mr. Kumar Rudra, L&T Hydrocarbon Upstream, received the award.

Mr. Satish N. Palekar (third from right), Mr. Subba Balaji Rao (second from left) and Mr. Kumar Rudra (left), receiving the ICC award for L&T-Valdel.

Established in 1938, ICC is the apex national body representing all branches of the chemical industry in India. The ICC National Awards given under various categories recognize outstanding achievements by companies and individuals in the industry.