L&T Wins NDTV Profit Business Leadership Award

Affirming L&T's stature in building infrastructure, the Company was honoured with NDTV Profit's Business Leadership Award.

At a glittering ceremony at Mumbai on January 7, 2012, the award was handed over by Union Finance Minister, Mr. Pranab Mukherjee, to Mr. S. N. Subrahmanyam, Member of the Board & Sr. Executive Vice President - Construction, and Mr. R. Shankar Raman, Chief Financial Officer.

The NDTV Profit Business Leadership Awards were instituted to recognize organisational excellence. The awards acknowledge India's most dynamic organisations that have emerged leaders in their respective fields and are leading India in its quest to become an economic superpower. NDTV announced that the award highlighted 'success, ethics and building India' - all core to L&T.

The jury comprised industry and media stalwarts including Mr. T. N. Ninan (Business Standard), Dr. Prannoy Roy (NDTV) and Mr. Dorab R. Sopariwala (noted psephologist).

NDTV's rigorous selection process involved short-listing the industry categories that contributed the most to India's GDP and growth, collating a list of organisations in each category based on parameters like revenues, revenue growth and market share, and defining parameters and assigning weights.

L&T's infrastructure projects are spread across India. Landmark projects executed by L&T include airports at major cities including Delhi, Mumbai, Bangalore and Hyderabad; refurbishing the Wankhede Stadium; prestigious highway projects; Hyderabad's iconic HI-TEC City; the Bombay Stock Exchange and Vidhan Bhavan.
