

April 30, 2011

L&T's CSR Honoured with Golden Peacock Award 2011

L&T's Corporate Social Initiatives (CSI) were yet again acknowledged and applauded – this time with the prestigious 'Golden Peacock Global CSR Award 2011'.

L&T was selected in the category of 'Top Performer Award' for its accomplishment in the large enterprise segment. The award honours the Company's commitment towards community welfare and social development.

Mr. K.R. Palta (extreme left), L&T, receiving the award from Rt. Hon. Baroness Verma (2nd from right) in the presence of Lt. Gen. (retd.) J.S. Ahluwalia, President – Institute of Directors (2nd from left), and Mr. R. Bandyopadhyay (extreme right), former Secretary – Ministry of Corporate Affairs, Govt. of India.

Mr. K.R. Palta, EVP – Corporate Affairs, L&T, received the award on L&T's behalf from Rt. Hon. Baroness Verma, Minister, Govt. Whips office and House of Lords for International Development, UK at the 6th International Conference on Social Responsibility held on April 29, 2011 at New Delhi.