

L&T Opens New Service Centre at Bahadurgarh

L&T's Construction & Mining Equipment Business unveiled a new landmark, with the opening of a Service Centre at Bahadurgarh on the Delhi-Rohtak National Highway No.10.

The Service Centre was inaugurated by Mr. S. Raghavan, Sr. VP, IPM, L&T on August 3, 2010. Mr. S.K. Mitra, EVP, CMBS, L&T; Mr. K.R. Palta, VP-Corporate Affairs, L&T; Mr. S.R. Subramanian, CE, L&T-Komatsu Limited, Mr. C.V. Alavandi, CE, L&T-CASE Equipment Pvt. Ltd. and Mr. N. Kawanishi, VP, Komatsu India Pvt. Ltd, several customers, dealers and invitees were present on the occasion.

A group photograph taken on the occasion of the inauguration of the Bahadurgarh Service Centre.

L&T's Bahadurgarh Service Centre provides one-stop service solutions for its vast customer base operating in the Northern Region, in various construction and mining projects. The Service Centre has comprehensive facilities, and is equipped with spacious bays and specialised machines such as hydraulic test rig and machining centres. The activities include complete overhaul of equipment, repair and overhaul of major assemblies, reconditioning of machine structures and testing of transmissions, engines and hydraulic assemblies. The Service Centre is also equipped with a full-fledged Training Centre with facilities for imparting class room as well as hands-on training to customers, dealers and employees.

A view of the Service Centre.

As part of value-added services to customers, L&T offers Full Maintenance Contracts, Annual Maintenance Contracts, Site Support Agreements, Customized Services and Recon Exchange Programmes for field machines, for ensuring maximum uptime of the machines.