L&T Bags Rs. 651 Crore Orders for Projects in Hydrocarbon Sector

Mumbai, July 01, 2009: Larsen & Toubro (L&T) has bagged major orders aggregating Rs. 651 crore for two hydrocarbon projects. L&T will build a green field refinery project at Bathinda for HPCL-Mittal Energy Limited (HMEL), valued at Rs. 440 crore. In addition, L&T has received an order from Engineers India Limited for the supply and construction of a reactor and regenerator system valued at Rs. 211 crore for the Fluidized Catalytic Cracking (FCC) unit of Mangalore Refinery and Petrochemicals Limited (MRPL), Mangalore.

The HMEL project will be executed by the Construction Business Unit of L&T's E&C Division. The order involves construction of electro-mechanical sections for seven process units for the Guru Gobind Singh Refinery Project. The process units comprise Motor Spirit Block, Diesel Hydrotreater, Delayed Coker Unit, Vacuum Gas Oil Hydro Treater, FCC Unit, Poly Propylene Unit, and Liquefied Petroleum Gas units. The project is scheduled to be completed in 17 months.

L&T is already executing a hydrogen package at Bathinda on lumpsum turnkey basis valued at Rs. 700 crore.

The MRPL job will be executed jointly by L&T's Heavy Engineering Division and the Construction Business Unit of L&T's E&C Division. The order includes supply and erection of reactor, regenerator, and orifice chamber with structural, refractory lined piping works including painting, insulation & refractory works for FCC Unit for Phase III of the refinery project. This project will be completed in 24 months.

L&T will supply critical process equipment valued at Rs. 106 crore for the project. Site erection work is valued at Rs. 105 crore.

L&T is already executing DHDT & Hydrogen Package on lumpsum turnkey basis, valued Rs. 1400 crore, at Mangalore.
