Business Today Confers Best CEO Award on SNS

In yet another affirmation of his leadership prowess, L&T CEO & MD Mr S N Subrahmanyam (SNS) has been conferred the 'Best CEO - Infra & Engineering' award by Business Today.

The award was presented to SNS at a glittering ceremony marking the 10th edition of BT Mindrush in New Delhi on 24 June. Mr Piyush Goyal, the Union Minister of Commerce and Industry, Textiles, Consumer Affairs, Food and Public Distribution, handed over the award.

SNS has been vigorously steering L&T through the tough times of the pandemic and global turmoil. Under his leadership, the conglomerate has, over the past two years, secured several orders from India and overseas - a billion-dollar contract from Saudi Aramco, packages of the Central Secretariat (New Delhi), several metro orders, and more. L&T continues to deliver to clients under stringent delivery schedules; a testament to that is the fact that the backlog of orders now stands at Rs.3.5 lakh crore - highest in the history of the Company.

Accepting the award, SNS said that he is humbled to receive the honour. He added that the award is a recognition of the staff and workers of L&T who have put in their mind and muscle in making the Company what it is today. ■
