

September 27, 2014

L&T Wins Golden Peacock Award for Excellence in Corporate Governance

L&T has been adjudged the winner of the 'Golden Peacock Global Award for Excellence in Corporate Governance' for 2014 by the Institute of Directors (IoD).

The jury of the awards was headed by Justice (Dr.) Arijit Pasayat, former Judge, Supreme Court of India & Chairman, Competition Appellate Tribunal of India & Authority for Advance Ruling (Customs, Central Excise & Service Tax).

The award will be presented at a specially organised 'Golden Peacock Awards Nite', on October 29, 2014, in London, UK, in the presence of a distinguished gathering of business leaders, academics, environmentalists, economists, legislators and policy makers during IoD India's annual '14th London Global Convention on Corporate Governance & Sustainability' and Global Business Meet.

The Rt. Hon. Theresa May MP, Secretary of State for the Home Department, Govt. of UK, has been invited to be the Chief Guest and will hand over the awards.

The Golden Peacock Award for Excellence in Corporate Governance is presented annually. It is won by organisations which have institutionalised a powerful self-assessment process. Preparation for the award also helps to inspire and align the entire workforce and management of an organisation.

The Golden Peacock awards have been instituted by the IoD - a non-profit apex association of directors committed to improving the competitiveness of Indian businesses.