

FICCI Confers Lifetime Achievement Award on L&T Chairman Emeritus

L&T Chairman Emeritus Mr A M Naik (AMN) has received yet another distinctive honour - this time the Lifetime Achievement Award from the FICCI Young Leaders' Forum. This is the first time that the FICCI Lifetime Achievement Award has been conferred under the Young Leaders' category, and its presentation to AMN will inspire India's youth.

The award was presented to AMN in Mumbai on 28 August by Mr Sanjay Dutt (Former Chairman - FICCI Committee on Real Estate) and Ms Ujjwala Singhania (Co-Chair - FICCI Maharashtra State Council).

“This award is not just a recognition of my individual efforts, but a testament to the collective spirit of the many talented and dedicated individuals I have had the privilege to lead throughout my career. Leadership is not a solitary journey; it is shaped and defined by the people who walk alongside us. I owe this achievement to their unwavering support, trust, and collaboration,” AMN said while accepting the award. He hopes the award would encourage budding industry leaders strengthen their commitment to serve the nation and advance the cause of the underprivileged.

AMN's long journey in the service of the nation, company and community is widely admired because it manifests the immense possibilities that are open to the young if they possess a 'potent mix of passion, devotion, conviction and commitment'.

The FICCI Young Leaders Forum is a platform that brings together young leaders from diverse backgrounds and provides them with the opportunity to exchange ideas, experiences and skills. It aims to motivate emerging young leaders to assume the responsibility of taking the country towards a happier future.
